ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

July 1st is visualized as paramount day for Indian economy, as the GST is to be introduced from 1st July'2017. It is an accepted fact that GST is not merely a tax change but a business change as it will impact all functions of an organisation such as finance, product pricing, supply chain, information technology, contracts, commercials etc. Thus, it's imperative that all these functional teams should be aware about the GST. But the underlying question is what should these team members read/ refer for GST?
